COMPLETION of Paniama Railroad.—Reduction of fare to California.—United States mail steamships leave New York for Aspinwall on the 5th and 20th of each month, connecting with mail stoamers from Paniama to San Francisco.

These steamships have been inspected, and approved by the Navy Department, and gunranty pred and selfey.

The Paniama railroad (47 miles long) is now completed from ocean to ocean, and is crossed in 3 or 4 hours. The baggage of passengers is checked in New York through to San Francisco, and passengers are embarked at Paniama by steamer at the company's expense. The money paid in New York covers all expanses of the trip.

Reserve steamers are kept in port in New York, Paniama, and San Francisco, to prevent detention in case of accident, so that the route is entirely reliable.

Passengers leave Paniama the same day they arrive at Aspinwall. Conductors 50 through by each steamer, and take charge of women and children without other protectors.

SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION. Last evening the Rev. Dr. McIlvaine gave his second lecture on ethnology. His remarks were chiefly confined to an account of the structure of the Sanscrit language. Although not a subject well adapted for popular illustration, the lecturer managed to make it interesting to his audience. He exhibited the structure of the language by numerous examples, and took occasion to admire the rigorous logic which presides over its vast development. Its origin is not now traceable, but it may have developed itself from out the primitive monosyllabic language spoken by Adam in the

The construction and component parts of the Sanscrit the figurative and imaginative terms applied to show that women in the earliest Hindoo times held higher social position than they do now in India. THE SIXTH WARD AWAKE! - We learn that the Jackon Democratic Association of the navy-yard ward had a growded meeting on Thursday night. F. McNerhany, esq., presided, and made a most eloquent and able address on taking the chair; after which, he successively introduced Col. Morgan of Iowa, Hon. William Barksdale of Missis-sippi, Hon. J. F. Dowdell of Alabama, Hon. T. G. Da-vidson of Louisiana, and Mayor Magruder. "The various speakers dwelt upoft the importance, not only in a local but in a national point of view, of the approaching municipal election, and eloquently and carnestly enforced the necessity of sustaining, at the metropolis of the country, the administration of President Buchanan, whose principles and policy they ably vindicated." Much spirit was manifested, and there is every reason to believe that the democrats of the Sixth ward will distinguish them-

Phonouraphy.—The American Phonetic Journal having asserted that there is no school in which phonography is taught, Mr. Richards, the able principal of the Union Academy, publishes a card, in which he says : Union Academy, publishes a card, in which he says:

"Phonography has been taught in the Washington Union Academy for nearly seem years, and that now there is a class of ten pupils in the high school department which is making good progress. Any and every scholar may, if he wishes, become thoroughly trained in the principles and practice of this useful branch of education.
Phonography has always been included in the published list of studies. If the citizens of Washington would lake more realist to visit and examine the academical take more palos to visit and examine the academical schools in this city, they would find, perhaps, that many other things are taught in them quite as useful, if not quite as unknown to them, as the teaching of phono-graphy."

THE FUNERAL OF CAPTAIN TATE, yesterday afternoon was numerously attended, although the dust-hurrican made it very unpleasant out of doors. The Washington Light Infantry, Captain Davis, paraded as the escort, in full winter uniform, and presented an imposing appearance as they marched up the avenue, with arms reversed. The Odd Fellows followed, wearing their regalia, and then came the hearse, flanked by the pall-bearers, selected from the military and the Odd Fellows. A long train of coaches, filled with the friends and relatives of the deceased, brought up the rear.

PORTBAIT OF JUDGE MORSELL .- Mr. Cranch, who occu pies a deservedly high position among the artists of this country, has just completed a three-quarter-length por-trait of the venerable Judge Morsell, of the United States circuit court. It has been painted at the request of several members of the Wasnington bar, (as a companion to a portrait of the late Judge Cranch, by the same artist, taken in the year 1845,) and fully sustains the reputation

This portrait, with other fine works of art, may be seen at Mr. Cranch's studio, over the express office of Adams & Co.

Sr. PATRICK'S DAY .- At a meeting of those interested in celebrating St. Patrick's Day by a dinner, Messrs. John F. Ennis, John Savage, William Forsyth, John F. Coyle, F. McNerhany, John Dowling, Peter Gallant, W. H. Ward, Andrew J. Joyce, James Donnelly, Gregory Ennis, Edward Dolan, M. Renahan, and Andrew Carro vere appointed a committee of arragements.

THE SMALL-POX .- It is rumored that the small-pox still exists in this metropolis, and that quite a number of persons are now afflicted with it. Whether this be so or not, it is the duty of all persons to profit by the blessing of vaccination, and to see that it is extended to their children and to servants, if they have either. A MONUMENT has been erected by the ' President's Mounted Guard' to the memory of their departed com-rade, Ensign Jos. Chap. Peck. It is ornamented with a medallion portrait of the deceased, supported by military emblems, and with an appropriate inscription.
